

Camp Emmanuel Guidelines

- Camp Emmanuel accepts everyone regardless of race, color, creed, sex, handicap, or national origin. All campers are expected to be ambulatory and able to feed, clothe, and bathe themselves. Facilities are rustic, and the terrain and program are rugged.
- Registration is available for all camps online or by mail.
- Cabin preference will be considered, but is not guaranteed.
- Housing for each camp program may change without notice due to unforeseen circumstances.
- Primary insurance coverage is the camper's family insurance in case of accident or illness at camp. Limited Secondary insurance may be provided depending on the circumstances. Campers' personal property is not insured.
- Anyone, including parents, picking up campers must be written on the pre-approved pickup list (on the registration form), and bring photo identification.
- Campers may not use the telephone except to return emergency calls from immediate family members. Please refrain from calling campers; however, please feel free to call the camp office/camp manager if needed.
- Campers should not bring cell phones. Cell phone coverage at camp is very limited anyway.
- Campers love to receive mail. Mail can be dropped off during check-in or mailed to the camp office. We will have "mail call" on most days, and any camper receiving three or more letters may be encouraged to sing for their mail, as is tradition. Please print the camper's full name on each letter.
- Lost or Damaged Items. Camp Emmanuel is not responsible for lost or damaged items not belonging to the camp. Campers are responsible for any damage they cause to camp property above normal wear and tear.
